

STUDENT CAMPUS MISSIONARIES

“...I WILL MAKE YOU FISHERS OF MEN.”

SCM Parent / Guardian Consent Form

MANY CALLED FEW CHOSEN ARE

Dear Parent / Guardian,

My name is Phil Sessa, and I am an Evangelist with the Assemblies of God, and the president of Soulfishing Ministries. As a teenager God called me into the ministry and began to shape and mold me when I became a Student Campus Missionary to my public school. Through oppositions, trials, and successes God used my life to pray for fellow students and teachers in my school. I distributed Gospel tracts there and founded the first Bible club the school ever had, where a number of Christian and non-Christian teens attended. I studied the rights of religious expression in public schools and by the grace of God won a small legal battle allowing full rights to function as a recognized club in my school and gaining all the rights and privileges of any other club.

WHY AM I SHARING THIS CONCISE TESTIMONY WITH YOU?

I believe that God is still calling me and others to reach schools for Christ, and the most strategic way to do so is through students. As a former youth pastor my concern was not only ministering to students but through students to a lost and dying world. As a result I began the Student Campus Missions Ministry to train students to impact their schools for Christ in the short amount of years before they graduate. Your son or daughter has expressed interest in taking a journey in obedience to Christ. When I ran a campus ministry I did not have anyone to train me in how to be a missionary nor coach me once I was “in the game.” I endeavor to do both for your son or daughter, training and coaching them along the way as they step onto the mission field and into the game. Of course evangelism and outreach is really NOT a game but a battle for the souls of the lost in your child’s school (students, teachers, faculty, and custodial staff). As both an Assemblies of God evangelist as well as a NYC public school teacher, I know the challenges that are before this generation. Your child will be taught how to: strategically pray for their school, effectively share their faith, set up a campus (Bible/Christian) club in their school, run events through their club, recognize their legal student rights in public schools, and be challenged in their own walk with Christ in reaching their schools for Jesus. The late Keith Green has rightly proclaimed...
